'Former'
Disconnected Man

LIVE A LIFE OF CONNECTION

Jim is an author who discovered late in life that there is no replacement for connection – true connections with God and man.

The kind of connection that requires a man to abandon himself and pour himself into the hearts of others. Jim Turner is helping men across the country get connected to themselves, their wives and God.

“Everything is about Relationships.
Cut the Bible anywhere and it bleeds relationship” ~ Jim Turner

Jim Turner has been in pastoral ministry for twenty-five years and has personally experienced the battle to overcome disconnection and create lasting, loving relationships.

Jim is the author of several books addressing relationships, how to keep them healthy, how to manage them, and how to mend them.

A father of four young adults, stepfather to six, he is remarried and living in the delight of being truly connected with his wife. He lives with his blended family in the Portland, Oregon area

"After 17+ years of a second marriage, my wife is telling me repeatedly that she doesn't believe I hear her heart. My stumbling upon the podcast is surely Divine Providence from the Holy Spirit. God bless you a lot." ~ Bob
